

Song of the Crimson Tide

Words and Music by Stark Paget, 1926; Copyright by Bro N Sis Music; Copyright Renewed; Int'l Copyright Secured; Used by Permission; Music arranged by David M. Battles 2007.

Sons of the South, North, East, and West,
We're marching on together.
You'll hear us shout with zeal and zest,
One loyalty forever.
And while we're marching on,
We'll always sing this song:

We are loyal to you Crimson Tide,
And we back every move that you make.
Alabama, we praise and take pride,
For we share the glory you take.

We will fight, fight like our men of old;
Circle ends hard and then for a goal.
Whether we lose or win,
We are backing our men.
We are loyal to you, Crimson Tide!