

The Crimson and the White

Arranged by David M. Battles

Music by J.P. Ludebuehl 1910; Lyrics by V.H. Bell 1905

♩ = 60

Voice

G

C

1. A - way down South in
2. And when in years our

Piano

5

Voice

G⁹

C

G⁹

Dix - ie Land, Where sun - sets born in splen - dor grand, Where hearts less strong, We've fought life's fight the whole way long, When

Pno.

8

Voice

C

Caug⁹/E

F

G/D

F/C

War - rior rolls its tran-quil stream, Soft - ly mur-mur-ing as laur-els shall crown our chest-nut brow, Will we love thee then as Pno.

11

G F/A G C G⁹ C

Voice

in a dream, The shade of thy walls, oh U of A, Has kissed those wa- ters_ we do now? A thou- sand voic- es_ ring out ayes. We'll love thee more in our Pno.

15

G⁹ C Caug⁹/E E F

Voice

man- y a day. And now they sing this ech - o song
Win - ter days, And all the fame that time will bring,

Pno.

18

G/D F/C G/B C

Voice

CHORUS

full_ from the hearts of_ stu- dents strong. Then here's to the col - ors of great - er_ praise to_ thee we'll sing.

Pno.

21

Voice

Crim-son White, Those cords that bind us to truth and right; Here Hope and Faith

Pno.

Edim⁷/B^b F/A

25

Voice

give strength each day, For we love thy walls, oh

Pno.

D/F# G C F⁹

27

Voice

U of A. 2. And love thy walls, oh U of A!

molto rall.

Pno.

C G⁷/D C C Edim⁷ F⁹ Ddim⁷ C G⁷/D C